

Home Alone (For Dudley)

music & lyrics by Kim Banffy

*'Nice of you to drop around,
Seems that lately I've found
Life has become very quiet.
Her soundtrack is fading now, I find it hard to hear.
It was always there...it's strange.*

*I don't get out much now,
She was always organising.
No, I haven't gone back...don't think I'll bother.
It seems so much easier to stay around here.
I can watch TV and just please me.*

*Ch: But I can feel your heart, it's breaking
And your smile's a fleeting thing.
While you're locked inside your fortress
Your voice has a hollow ring.*

*Things make me tired now.
The food's gone off at Dave's,
Just got up & left before I'd finished.
I turn up the stereo to keep the quiet back.
I can cook my tea the way it pleases me.*

*I walk to her favourite spot on the water,
Hoping she'll give me a sign.*
